

Take and Eat [B, 98 bpm]

[Iron City Worship] by ICW

INTRO:

B

VERSE 1:

There is goodness in the garden B
(Where) God is breathing out His glory B
Where the river sings the story of E B/D#
The beauty He has shared with us C#m7 F# B
There's a serpent in the garden G#m7
He's chasing down creation F#/A# B
He is twisting every craving with E B/D#
The fruit of fear and He says C#m7 F#

CHORUS:

G#m7 F#/A# B
Take, take and eat
E
Three little words that turned
C#m7 F# B
The whole world upside down

VERSE 2:

There is silence at the table B
They recount the ages past B
Over centuries of wandering and E B/D#
Longing for the Lamb of God C#m7 F# B
There is sadness in the Savior G#m7
He cries to tell of what's to come F#/A# B
He pours a cup of wine E B/D#
And as He breaks the bread He says C#m7 F#

CHORUS

Take and Eat -

BRIDGE: (2X)

E F#
The banquet doors are swinging wide
E F#
The Bread of Heaven is alive
E F#
The grave it howls of hunger pains
E F#
The Bread of Heaven breathes again

VERSE 3:

B
There's forgiveness by the fire
Blazing on the shoreline
E B/D#
They can't deny the Lord's alive
C#m7 F# B
Their hearts reviving with the rising Son
G#m7
Messiah murdered on the mountain
F#/A# B
And now He feasts within their midst
E B/D#
The One who passed away's alive
C#m7 F#
And now He's passing plates and He says

CHORUS
